Entertainments of the Week.

Mrs. Charles E. Davis entertained a large number of friends on Wednesday afternoon of last week, the occasion being in honor of her guest, Mrs. Judge Palmer of Lake City. It might fittingly have been termed a "beauty party" from the nature of the game played. Each guest brought five photographs which were shuffled and dealt, and the game then proceeded each scoring a point and progressing who played the prettiest photograph. It caused great amusement and resulted in a tie between Mrs. Louis Fraleigh and Mrs. Alex Smith. Mrs. Fraleigh, who was the lucky one, presented the prize, a silver darning, to the guest of honor, Mrs. Palmer. Beautiful ices and cakes were served and greatly enjoyed by all.

Friday afternoon there gathered at the residence of Mrs. B. B. McCall perhaps the largest assemblage of "fair women" that has occurred this season. Many beautiful costumes were in evidence and the afternoon was one of unbroken merriment. Flowers had been cut from books, numbered differently, hidden and the guests indulged in a floral hunt which was voted "great fun." Mrs. Tom Beggs found the highest number and presented the prize, a dainty piece of pottery, to the honoree of the occasion, Mrs. Hawks, of Quilman. After the search all did justice to the strawberries, frozen cream and cake. In the evening Mrs. McCall received the younger society people in honor of Miss Mamie tripling, about twenty-five being present. The Virginia Reel was danced and a happy evening was spent.

RUN-OVER LOCALS

Next Sunday is Easter, and the churches will be crowded with people who are fortunate enough to have new and seasonable clothes. This editor will have to stay at home because his Easter hat and clothes have not arrived and our Paris tailor and hatter said that they can't finish them up in time for our wear this Eastertide. Wee is we!

Frank Webb was again a welcome visitor among his home friends Sunday.

We regret to note that Mrs. Ben Tucker has been quite sick since last Saturday.

Clark Stapler of Valdosta visited his cousin, Mrs. A. L. Blalock, several days this week.

B. McCall made a flying trip to Live Oak Monday remaining there only between trains.

Miss Janie Johns of Bellville came in Tuesday and is spending the week with Mrs. Blalock.

D. H. Tharin is expected Saturday to spend Easter with his mother and sister at the Merchants hotel.

Born yesterday morning, Bennettsville, S. C., to D. G. Smith and wife, a fine boy. Daniel G. left immediately to see his new son and heir.

E. S. Armstrong, accompanied by his son, Crawford, visited in Jacksonville several days this week.

Miss Lula Shuckelford and Mrs. Walter Overstreet enjoyed a day's visit to Mrs. A. W. Shuckelford Sunday.

Dr. Will Parramore paid a professional visit to Perry this week, remaining in that thriving village several days.

Little Miss and Master Marsh were the guests of Mrs. B. A. Inglis last week and are being entertained this week by Mrs. W. P. Knight.

Mrs. H. M. McPherson of Jacksonville is making her home with Mrs. Francis Eppes. Her husband, Dr. MacPherson, is traveling for a life insurance company and expects to establish his headquarters here for some time.

Dr. Yates has installed a gasoline engine to furnish the motive power for his X ray machine and fash in the Brinson-Yates drug store.

V. P. Harmeling and wife have broken up housekeeping and on Tuesday left to visit St. Augustine and other places. They will return here for a few days, after which they will leave permanently for the north.

The much talked of bank consolidation has culminated into a reality, and on next Thursday the First National will take over the business of the Madison County State and the latter institution will proceed to voluntary liquidation. The consolidated bank will occupy the banking house of the Madison County State Bank. Further particulars are not yet obtainable but the consolidation is an absolute fact. Future developments will be reported as they occur.

A Dandy for Burns.

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends as I am confident there is no better made. 'It is a dandy for burns.' Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency." 25c, 50c and $1 bottle at Davis' drug store.

Memorial Day Committee.

We are requested by Mrs. Inglis, president, to state that the following named ladies have been appointed a committee to decorate the speaker's stand, and they are requested to meet at the cemetery promptly next Tuesday morning, 10 o'clock, for such purpose: Mesdames Jno. Vann, C. E. Davis, G. O. Davis, B. B. McCall, C. H. Smith, W. H. Dial, Jr., Tharin and Ashley, and Misses Vann Wilson, Lizzie Taylor and May Cogins, with Mrs. John Fonda as chairman of the committee.

Circuit Court Adjourned.

The Grand Jury having completed its labors, filed into court Saturday morning, presented its General Presentments, which were read, and were discharged with the thanks of the court.

The court was engaged Saturday in the trial of a civil case and hearing of motions. In the Baker case the jury having rendered a verdict of manslaughter with a recommendation to mercy, a motion for a new trial was entered and argued and by the court denied, and the defendant was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary.

Adam Tyson, colored, convicted of burning the dwelling house of Judge Martin, was sentenced to a term in the penitentiary for the balance of his natural life.

Frank Fason, colored, tried for ravishing a negro woman at Ellaville was acquitted.
